Beautiful models

Welcome to the 2008 edition of the BBurago International catalog. We thank you for your support in our efforts to rebuild a brand worthy of the BBurago name, and we hope that you found these efforts fruitful.

While 2007 was a challenging year in many aspects of our business, the one constant that never seemed to wane was the loyalty that fans of the BBurago brand demonstrated. We have seen significant growth in the market share of the BBurago brand in all markets we operate in, specifically in Europe, and we look forward to seeing this trend continue in 2008. To that end, you will notice as you review this catalog, as well as our website, www.bburago.com, that we have invested significantly in new products for this year. We have almost 90 new tools in the overall line, a substantial position aimed at offering the broadest line of quality die-cast products anywhere.

There are several new brand initiatives we have undertaken at BBurago for 2008. We have begun a new relationship with Abarth, the tuning house owned by Fiat. This allows us to offer customized versions of some of Italy's hottest line of street cars, just as Abarth does with the real cars. You will see these later in the year. We have also created a new diorama style product line with our 1:32 scale styles called On The Scene. Great die-cast replicas in beautiful settings. BBurago enters into the world of Emergency and Protection with the line of 1:32 Security Force as well as our 1:50 Emergency Force. Additionally, BBurago is taking a major position with the brand new Lamborghini Reventón, the stunning performance car that has taken cues from a fighter jet. We will offer the Reventón in every scale BBurago offers products in. Each and every one of these projects has been well thought out and devised to offer you, our loyal customer, the very best assortment of replica products available.

As you review our catalog, our website, and all of our promotional vehicles, we hope that like us, you will agree that BBurago makes beautiful models. We once again thank you, and wish you the best of years.
